

Terms and Conditions – MCI Backpacking Expedition to the Holy Land

Thank you for your interest in the MCI backpacking expedition to the Holy Land. Please read the following terms and conditions carefully before applying. By proceeding with the application, you agree to these terms.

1. Christian Faith

Applicants must be believers in Jesus, identifying with the Christian faith to be eligible for participation.

2. Valid Passport

Applicants must possess a valid passport with at least 6 months of validity remaining from the date of travel.

3. Financial Responsibility

Applicants must be able to finance their own trip and cover all related expenses. If you're unable to cover the costs at this time, you should have a plan in place for how you'll manage to do so.

4. Training Requirement

Applicants must attend a training session scheduled in February 2025. Please note that the exact dates are subject to change based on the availability of the confirmed team.

5. Political Sensitivity

Water From The Rock (WFTR) reserves the right to refuse any application from individuals involved in politically sensitive matters or activities.

6. Flight Arrangements for Non-Core Team Members

Non-core team members are required to travel to Israel through London Heathrow Airport, UK.

7. Non-Refundable Flights

Once flights are booked, they are non-refundable under any circumstances.

8. Travel Insurance

All participants are encouraged to have valid travel insurance. If you do not provide proof of coverage, you will be fully responsible for any medical or travel-related expenses that may arise.

9. Deposit Requirement

A non-refundable deposit of £100 is required to secure your place before the training weekend.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us prior to submitting your application at transit@wftherock.org.uk
